DETENTION ORDER

COMPLAINT

IT IS ORDERED,

- 1) The above-named defendant shall be detained until further order, because:
 - The defendant has failed to meet the burden of showing, by clear and convincing evidence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3153 (a) and Fed. R. Crim. P. Rule 32.1(a)(6) that defendant is not likely to fail to appear or pose a danger to the safety of any person or the community.
 - The Court's findings are based on the evidence presented in court and that contained in the court's records, and includes the following: the defendant is not a citizen of the US, and has an extensive criminal background that includes an outstanding warrant from another state.
- 2) The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility; the defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and on order of a court of the United States, or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the facility shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
- 3) A preliminary hearing will be held on February 23, 2012 at 3:00 p.m. before the undersigned magistrate judge. Counsel for the government, defense counsel, and the defendant shall attend the hearing.
